Dear Sir:

Thank you for your letter of 3 May 1971. I notice that our paper "A Pilot Course in Engineering Systems Analysis," is still listed under Department of Defense. As we discussed a month ago, the Director has given full approval to publication and, if possible, the sponsoring agency should be named as C.I.A., in order to avoid any ambiguity. I realize that your printing is underway and, perhaps, it is too far "down the pike" now to change except on an errata sheet. We are looking forward to the constructive comments on our format and content in June.

Thank you very much.

Very truly yours,
